Summary of specific roles across the Health Data Portal and RAM.

Health Data Portal

Role	Who is this?	Responsible for
Health Data Portal user	An individual who needs to access the Health Data Portal	• Accepting their authorisation request and linking their myGovID to their Health Data Portal account

Relationship Authorisation Manager

Role	Who is this?	Responsible for
Principal authority	A business owner or eligible associate listed on an ABN in the Australian Business Register. In smaller organisations, this person may also be an User Administrator or a Health Data Portal user.	• Setting up their organisation in RAM • Creating authorisation requests for new users, including authorisation administrators • Managing authorisations to ensure users' details and agency access are up to date
Authorisation administrator	A person who has administrator privileges in RAM on behalf of their delegated organisation.	• Importing active AUSkeys • Creating authorisation requests for new users, including other authorisation administrators • Managing authorisations to ensure users' details and agency permissions are up to date
Authorised user	A person who has accepted an authorisation request to act on behalf of an organisation.	• Representing their organisation when transacting with government online services
New user	A person who has not yet registered with myGovID and/or RAM.	• Setting up their myGovID digital identity • Accepting their authorisation request